Dear Sir,

I would like to express my sincere gratitude for the trust and opportunity extended to me to serve Goa Carbon Ltd. It has been a privilege to be associated with the organization and to contribute at a senior level. My tenure here has been professionally enriching and the exposure to leadership, strategic decision-making and organizational values will remain invaluable to me.

After careful consideration, I regret to inform you that due to personal and health-related reasons requiring my focused attention at this time, I am unable to continue my service with the organization. This decision has not been made lightly, as I have greatly valued my role, responsibilities and association with the leadership team.

I respectfully request you to accept my resignation from my position, effective from today, with a notice period of 30 days. During this period, I will ensure a structured and seamless transition, including the handover of responsibilities, documentation and coordination with internal and external stakeholders, to ensure continuity of operations and governance.

I remain fully committed to supporting the organization during the transition period and will be available for any assistance required to minimize disruption and safeguard organizational interests.

I am deeply grateful for the guidance, support and confidence placed on me throughout my tenure. It has been an honour to work alongside the management and colleagues, and I sincerely wish the organization continued success and growth. I hope to have the opportunity to serve the organization again in the future, should circumstances permit.
